

The Freedom Merchants

Sherryl Jordan

A riveting tale of piracy and slavery set in the early 1600s in Ireland and Northern Africa.

Publication	June 2013
ISBN	978-1-77543-146-6
NZ RRP	$18.50
e-ISBN	978-1-77543-212-8
ebook RRP	USD $9.99
Printing	Mono
Binding	Paperback
Format	198 x 128 mm
Extent	448 pp
Age	12+ years
Lexile	TBC
Rights available	World excl. ANZ

ALSO AVAILABLE AS AN EBOOK
FOR AMAZON KINDLE:

<http://tinyurl.com/lcqh94>

Sherryl Jordan

lives in Tauranga and is the internationally successful author of a wide range of YA fiction including Rocco, The Juniper Game, Tanith, Winter of Fire and last year's Ransomwood, as well as award-winning Finnigan and the Pirates and the hilarious Denzil books for younger readers.

Author photo by Pamela Phelan

- Arguably Sherryl Jordan's finest work yet – great YA/adult crossover title
- Gripping, dramatic story about a white slave trade that few people know about, which was taking place at the same time as the black slave trade to America
- The powerfully written story of one young man's courage and love for his family and the Muslim survivor he saves
- Story is set partly in Ireland then follows Liam, and the monks who accompany him, on their treacherous journey to ransom the slaves in northern Africa.
- A brilliant read!
- With chapter illustrations by the author herself.

Praise for Sherryl Jordan's other stories

"Sherryl Jordan is a master storyteller and an equally gifted illustrator. In Finnigan & the Pirates she showcases both talents expertly." — Magpies

Ransomwood: "This is one of the loveliest novels I have read in some time. Brilliantly told by one of New Zealand's best story tellers. This novel will melt your heart." — Bob Docherty, Bob's Books Blog

Rocco: "This inspired book is a creative milestone in New Zealand writing for children." — The Dominion

Read Every Day. Lead a Better Life.

www.scholastic.co.nz • www.facebook.com/scholasticnewzealand