*It is a misty morning in the forest.
Flit the fantail chick is practising his landings.
Flap, flop, slip, FLIP.*

*Flit slips on something slippery and round.
He has stumbled upon eight rubbery white eggs.*

Join Flit and his friends, Kiki the kaka, rascally robins Bit and Bob, Keri the kiwi and wise old Ruru as they exercise some teamwork. Can they figure out who the mystery eggs belong to?

Kat Merewether is the 'quintessentially Kiwi' author-illustrator of the bestselling Kuwi the Kiwi series. She is the ambassador for Kiwis for Kiwi, raising awareness for kiwi conservation, and illustrates out of her studio, Design on Q, and the boutique Illustrated Publishing. Her passion for all things children's books and illustration is apparent in her quirky illustration style. This is her second book in Scholastic's Flit the Fantail series, following Flit the Fantail and the Flying Flop, though she has also illustrated June Pitman-Hayes' Tāwhirimātea: A Song for Matariki (Scholastic NZ).

Kat lives in rural Waikato.

- Book #2 in an adorable new series from bestselling author-illustrator Kat Merewether (Kuwi the Kiwi)
- A heart-warming story about first encounters, problem-solving and helping friends
- With native NZ flora and fauna, a mini lesson in egg sizes and types and the cutest of lead characters, this is a book that Kiwi kids will treasure
- Delightful language with lots of alliteration and a touch of wide-eyed drama
- MĀORI EDITION ALSO AVAILABLE: Ko Flit, te Tīrairaka, me ngā Hēki Muna

Praise for Flit the Fantail and the Flying Flop, by Kat Merewether

"There is so much cuteness in this delightful, fun picture book for young children, that every time I pick it up I can't help smiling"—
