SYNOPSIS

Itty Bitty Kitty LOVES tree climbing, leaping on leaves and sleeping in sunbeams. She HATES being called cute. She is almost a tiger, after all!

She may still be a kitten, but Itty Bitty is ready to take on the world. And she knows all the Cat Laws.

But her family are taking a long time to learn the rules. They still don't know that cats must play when the moon is full. And they think cats are clumsy! Itty Bitty has a lot to teach them.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Maddy Mara is the pen name of Melbourne-based creative duo Hilary Rogers and Meredith Badger. Hilary and Meredith have been collaborating on children's books for nearly two decades. Hilary is an author and former publishing director; Meredith is the author of countless books for kids and young adults, and teaches English as a foreign language. Maddy Mara is the melding of their respective daughters' names.

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Noémie grew up in a small coastal town of New-Brunswick, Canada, surrounded by the ocean. Growing up, she told everyone she wanted to become either a doctor, or a children's book illustrator. Midway through med school, she decided she would do both. She now shares her time between the hospital (where she works as a rheumatologist) and her home studio, where she sketches, draws and paints surrounded by her wife, son, two tiny Chihuahuas and two cats. She works both digitally and traditionally, creating engaging illustrations, usually with a funny twist!

- In each of these stories, Itty Bitty shows us her Cat Laws. Are the Cat Laws the same at the start and end of each story?

Text and Visual Literacy

- The stories about Itty Bitty are funny. One way they make us laugh is through the difference between what Itty Bitty thinks and what is actually true, like when she thinks that Dad Human raked the leaves just for her. Can you find any other examples of jokes like this?
- Sometimes we can see these jokes in the illustrations, like when Itty Bitty says that she has climbed really high but we see in the art that she has barely left the ground. Are there other places where the text and art don't match? Can you describe what you see?
- Itty Bitty often calls human features by the names of cat features, like calling their hands 'paws'. Can you find other examples of this?

Social and Emotional Development

- In Story 1, Itty Bitty meets some birds. How do they make her feel? How does she react to their behaviour? Have you ever felt like Itty Bitty does here?
- In Story 1, Itty Bitty is climbing a tree when her paws tremble and her stomach starts to feel funny. Have you ever felt like this before? What made you feel better?
- We know that Itty Bitty is very excited to be up and playing at night in Story 2. But how do you think the rest of the family feels in this story?

- In Story 3, Itty Bitty thinks that her family is going to take her back to the shelter and she runs away. This is an example of a misunderstanding. Can you think of a time when you've had a misunderstanding with your friends or family? How can misunderstandings be avoided?
