

The Pinchers and the Diamond Heist

Anders Sparring & Per Gustavsson

GECKO
PRESS

Train your criminal mind!

The Pincher family likes to take things that aren't theirs. Sometimes thieving requires a really good memory, so it's time for memory training.

Look carefully at the picture below and try to memorize every object. When you're done, turn the page and see how much you can remember!

Tip!
Look at the picture
for a full minute.

Can you answer these questions about the picture?

1. There are two paintings. What do they depict?
2. What shape is the road sign?
3. Was there anything suitable for winter sports? What was that?
4. How many apples did you find?
5. Was the stuffed lion wearing glasses?
6. How many wheels did you see?
7. Did you see anything belonging to Paul Eessman?
8. Now see if you can write down everything you saw!

Answers to questions opposite:
1. A royal person (in a crown) and a ship at sea 2. Triangle 3. Ski boots 4. 29 5. There was no stuffed lion! The bear was not wearing glasses.
6. 4 7. Abaton