

Henry Bob Bobbalich

Juliette MacIver & Link Choi

Is there nothing that brave Henry can't climb?

Publication	May 2016
ISBN	978-1-77543-322-4
NZ RRP	$19.00
Printing	Full colour
Binding	Paperback
Format	250 x 240 mm
Extent	32 pp
Age	3-7 years
Lexile	Read aloud

Henry Bob Bobbalich, though he was small, could reach up to places unreachable by the tall ...

Yes, Henry was an adventurer. He could – and would – climb anything ... till it was decreed by censorious adults that it was too dangerous, and he was stopped from doing the one thing he loved to do. At first he raged, then he became listless and ill. No doctors could cure him. Finally, his father took him off on an adventure – where Henry Bob's climbing skills saved a life!

- Written by highly acclaimed children's book author, Juliet MacIver
- A rollicking good adventure story celebrating the joy in doing what you're good at
- Stunningly illustrated by Link Choi (The Dragon Tamers)
- Pages are beautifully designed in ageless, traditional picture book style

Praise for Juliette MacIver's Grasshoppers Dance

"This a beautiful book to read aloud, with Juliette MacIver departing from her usual style to bring us a lyrical journey through the seasons." — Otago Daily Times

"Grasshoppers Dance is a marvellous read-aloud nonsense book, in the best sense of the word 'nonsense.' It unbridles the imagination and lets it run free." — The Source

"The rhyming words and the illustrations stir the imagination and are bound to delight many children." — NZ Book Council Peer Review

Juliette MacIver is a Wellington-based author and mother of four. She majored in Linguistics at Victoria University and has a diploma in teaching English. Juliette is the author of popular Scholastic picture books the Marmaduke Duck series, Grasshoppers Dance, The Moose and the Goose, Bye! Bye! Bye! and Tom and the Dragon. Juliette's picture books have been awarded two Storylines Notable Book Awards and have been shortlisted for the NZ Children's Book Awards, the LIANZA Children's Book Awards and the Crystal Kite Award.

Link Choi was a finalist of the LIANZA Awards Russell Clark Medal for Illustration for his book, The Dragon Hunters.

 SCHOLASTIC
open a world of possible