

My Meerkat Mum

Ruth Paul

A mother's job is never done...

Join our Meerkat Mum through a day of looking after the kids: getting them out of bed, grooming them, feeding them, teaching them ... the similarities to her human counterpart are many! Anyone who's ever watched meerkats will be fascinated by their funny antics, and Ruth Paul's delightful staccato text cleverly mirrors the way they move.

- By internationally acclaimed, award-winning author/illustrator Ruth Paul
- Gorgeous illustrations, full of life and fun, bring the sights and colours of the savannah to your home
- A long-awaited companion volume to My Dinosaur Dad
- Short, staccato text, reminiscent of Bad Dog Flash
- Interactive, playful exploration of relative direction for littlies

Publication	April 2017
ISBN	978-1-77543-489-4
NZ RRP	$27.99
Printing	Full colour
Binding	Hardback
Format	250 H x 240 W mm
Extent	24 pp
Age	2-6 years
Lexile	Read aloud

Ruth Paul is the internationally acclaimed, award-winning author and illustrator of Scholastic NZ titles Bye-Bye Grumpy Fly, What's the Time, Dinosaur?, My Dinosaur Dad, Stomp!, Bad Dog Flash and Go Home Flash, among others. Her books have been published in New Zealand, Australia, the United Kingdom, Canada, the United States, China and Korea. Her 2007 title The King's Bubbles won both Children's Choice and Best Picture Book at the NZ Post Children's Book Awards. Ruth lives near Wellington, New Zealand, where she and her family reside in an environmentally friendly house, with straw-bale walls and water-generated power.

Praise for Bye-Bye Grumpy Fly and My Dinosaur Dad

"Wonderful language, wonderful rhyme! ... A beautiful new picture book to add to your collection." — Magpies

"A perfect little picture book"
— Kate De Goldi,
Radio New Zealand

"A perfect title for dads and littlies to share" — Magpies

 SCHOLASTIC
open a world of possible