Miles Morales is just your average teenager. Dinner every Sunday with his parents, chilling out playing old-school video games with his best friend, Ganke, crushing on brainy, beautiful poet Alicia. He's even got a scholarship spot at the prestigious Brooklyn Visions Academy. Oh yeah, and he's Spider-Man. But lately, Miles's spidey-sense has been acting up and Miles begins to question his abilities. After all, his dad and uncle both have criminal records. Maybe kids like Miles aren't meant to be Super Heroes. As Miles tries to get his school life back on track, he can't shake the vivid nightmares that continue to haunt him. Nor can he avoid the relentless buzz of his spidey-sense every day in class. But after his scholarship is threatened, Miles uncovers a chilling plot, one that puts his friends, his neighborhood, and himself at risk.

It's time for Miles to suit up!

Jason Reynolds is crazy about stories and writing. But until he discovered reading in the sixth grade, books were nothing more than disappointing birthday gifts from his Grandma. Now he makes it his mission to write exciting books for kids (particularly boys) who mistakenly think that all books are boring. He is the author of critically acclaimed When I Was the Greatest and has won multiple awards for many other titles ranging from middle grade to YA fiction.
