- Four tried and true light-hearted romps packaged together in one handy carry bag
- Proven bestsellers in an unbeatably priced package, great value!
- All hilariously illustrated by one of NZ's top children's illustrators, the award-winning Jenny Cooper
- Sung in honky-tonk style by New Zealand's national treasures the Topp Twins
- Everyone knows the tune of these and will soon be toe-tapping, yodelling and singing along

The Topp Twins are the folk-singing, twin-sister comedy duo of entertainers Jools and Lynda Topp. They are known for their country music influenced style, live shows and television performances. Their growing collection of picture book and CD sets for Scholastic NZ include: Skip to the Loo, My Darlin', Old MacDonald Had a Farm, Dingle-Dangle Scarecrow, The Farmer in the Dell, She'll Be Coming Round the Mountain, Do Your Ears Hang Low? and There's a Hole in My Bucket.

Praise for these Topp Twins & Jenny Cooper classics

"The illustrations by Jenny Cooper are incredible – words fail me to describe just how wonderful they really are. To include a cat, dog and even a cow at one stage in the square dancing is nothing short of genius. Thank you Lynda, Jools and Jenny for one very entertaining book." — Booksellers NZ

"Jenny Cooper's illustrations are just outstanding. The hound dog is just magnificent. Elvis would have been moved ... It is worth it just for the illustrations, the music just tops it off, if you will excuse the pun." — Bob's Books Blog
