MY DOG ATE THE BATHROOM

JUSTIN CHRISTOPHER
RAYMOND MCGRATH

A laugh-out-loud story about chaos, consequences and unconditional love

When Ella's dog, Mr Nut, starts eating everything in sight—Dad's slippers, the TV remote, even the bathroom—things quickly spiral out of control. As Mr Nut grows bigger with each bite, the family faces a hilarious disaster, losing their garage, house, and even their car! But when the mischievous pup finally eats too much, an unexpected (and messy) surprise awaits.

- Justin Christopher has written a silly and unpredictable story that takes destruction to a whole new level.
- Engaging, exaggerated humour that kids will adore—perfect for fans of The Wonky Donkey and Pig the Pug.
- Lively illustrations by Raymond McGrath bring the chaos and comedy to life.

Praise for Justin Christopher and Raymond McGrath

"Children love farts, rudeness, and manners being ignored in stories, but mixing all three with three Nanas and you have pure gold. The rhyming text takes the reader through a tale of terrible manners to culinary consequences."

— What Book Next about Nanas With No Manners

"Author Raymond McGrath's energetic illustrations bring something unique that will appeal to younger readers. They are bright and full of energy and imagination."
